NOVEMBER 2023

NEW ULM, MINNESOTA

COMMANDER'S CORNER

Brian Krosch, Commander

Hello Legion members.

I hope life is treating you well. I have a lot to chat about with you this morning.

First of all, happy November. The Veterans Day program will be held on November 10th at Cathedral high school starting at 11am. Our color guard will be at St. Anthony's at 9:30 then at 2 pm they will be at Orchard Hills. at 2 pm. November 11th there will be S.O.S. at the American Legion Post 132 from 6:30 to 8:30 am. Starting at 11, the Maid right crew is offering Veterans two sandwiches free. The 'Early Bird' meal will be November 12th at noon.

I would like to add there will be no Veterans Day program out at MVL this year due to not enough parking. They will be starting it back up next year

In December, after our meetings, we will be having our Christmas potluck upstairs with the rest of our Legion family. The meetings will be one hour earlier than normal. Executive Board will be at 5 pm, regular membership meeting at 6pm.

We are interning a scarecrow contest; I will let you know how the post does.

I would like to thank all our Volunteers who worked the street Dance and all you who just help whether it is every day or once a month, thank you.

S.A.L NEWS S.A.L Squadron #132, Scott Ries, Commander
 Dear New Ulm Legion Family,

Thanks to all for your help with our bagging prior Halloween, and our Annual Halloween Community Treat Night. We had a large committee, that put lots of effort into the event!

Reminder that our SAL is on the New Ulm Legion Web Site, and we now have our own SAL Facebook page. If you have any submission, please email them to James Haviland. His Email is nulegiontech@gmail.com. I know James will appreciate it.

Keep in mind with holidays coming up, that a gift of membership to the New Ulm SAL is always good. Just need to be a relative of a veteran....son, grandson, step son, great grandson, etc.... Membership forms are at the Legion! Or, give a gift a Legion Family T-Shirt. We have sizes Medium thru Double X. $30 per! Have a great November, and Thanksgiving!

New Ulm SAL...we believe in the Flag and Patriotism
